

By the King.

A Proclamation for the adiournement of the Parliament, from the fourteenth day of Nouember next, to the eight day of February following.

THE Kings most Excellent Maiestie, taking into his Royall consideration, the present season of the yeare and weathur, and how troublesome and vnsit it is like to be, for the Prelates, Noblemen, and States of this Kingdome, and also for the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses of this present Parliament, to travell to the City of Westminister, where the same is appointed by adiournement to be holden vpon the fourteenth day of Nouember next, and that the celebration of the feast of Christmas soone after approacheth; And therefore, and for divers other weighty considerations, His Highnesse (at the motion & with the aduise of his Privie Councel) thinketh good and necessary, to adiourne the sayd Parliament, vntill the eight day of February next comming: And by this his proclamation doeth publish and notifie the same to all the sayd Prelates, Noblemen, and States, and also to all the sayd Knights, Citizens and Burgesses, So that they, or any of them (other then such as shall happen then to be in London or Westminister, who may attend to adiourne the same) are not bound or compelled to appeare the sayd fourteenth day of Nouember, at the City aforesayd, But that they, and every of them are heereby thereroof discharged against His Maiestie: Willing neverthelesse, and charging and commanding all and every the sayd Prelates, Noblemen and States, and all the sayd Knights, Citizens and Burgesses, and all others, to whom in this case it shall appertaine, That they and every of them doe personally appearre, and bee present the sayd eight day of February at the City of Westminister aforesayd, to treat, consent, and conclude vpon such matters, as in the sayd Parliament shall then and there, of the Common Councell of the Realme (by Gods fauour) happen to be ordyned.

Giuen at the Court at Royston, the sixt day of October, and in the nineteenth yeere of His Maiesties Reigne of Great Britaine, France and Ireland.

God sauе the King.

Imprinted at London by BONHAM NORTON, and JOHN BILL, Printers to the Kings most Excellent Maiestie.

M. D C. X X I.

53390